

Services Held For Harry Poullas

Funeral services for Harry Poullas, native of Greece who was killed at Kyune last Saturday morning are being held at the Berg Mortuary chapel this afternoon, under the direction of the priest from the Greek Orthodox church of Salt Lake, according to Wyman Berg, who will conduct the funeral.

Arrangements for the funeral services were made by friends of Poullas, who came to Provo Thursday. Interment will be in the Provo city cemetery. Poullas was born in Cefalnia, Greece, and had been in this country 19 years, according to Nick Kladis, who was in Provo Thursday.
